what the industry experts says

"Fiamma was the first to introduce a high quality Carry-Bike; a little bit more expensive but solid and reliable. This is what people want."

"With bike carriers, people are very sensitive to security and stability, this is the reason why they expect the best."

"The campers are the ones asking me about the Carry-Bike. Because of the high demand sometimes it's difficult to get them."

"It's not the first time that customers ask me to replace an ordinary bike-carrier with the robust Carry-Bike."

"Fiamma enjoys a very good reputation at campsites and people speak favourably about the after-sales service; this is an undeniable fact with consequences on the sales."

"I like the Fiamma staff. They are easy-going, human and very friendly people who understand rapidly and with whom the collaboration is very good. That's why I remain loyal."
